THOMAS' CONFESSION

In our culture the exclamation "My Lord and my God!" sounds like a rather banal exclamation of surprise. Sadly, we are used to hearing casually "Oh, God!" or even the Holy Name, "Jesus Christ!" taken in vain. Yet, in first-century Judea – and among many Orthodox Jews today – saying the name of God even in prayer would be considered presumptuous. Since the third century BC Jews have refrained from using the name of God even when reading the Torah. Only the high priest was permitted to read the name of God as written in the Torah, and only on Yom Kippur. Many Jews today simply say HaShem (the Name) when reading such passages or referring to God.

Claiming to be the Son of God was blasphemy in the eyes of the Sanhedrin, the Jewish council of elders in Jerusalem. The Gospel indicates that Jesus was condemned to death precisely for making this claim. "And the high priest answered and said to Him, 'I put You under oath by the living God: Tell us if You are the Christ, the Son of God!' Jesus said to him, 'It is as you said... Then the high priest tore his clothes, saying, 'He has spoken blasphemy! What further need do we have of witnesses? Look, now you have heard His blasphemy! What do you think?' They answered and said, 'He is deserving of death'" (Mt 26:63-65).

Claiming to see Christ in glory caused the death of the first martyr, St Stephen, as well. Brought before the Sanhedrin he spoke of God's mercy toward Israel, and the elders listened. But then he said, "'Look! I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!' Then they cried out with a loud voice, stopped their ears, and ran at him with one accord; and they cast him out of the city and stoned him" (Acts 7:56-58). Clearly Thomas' exclamation is presented in the Gospel as an act of faith in Jesus as Lord.

The Apostles' Teaching: From the beginning, the Apostles taught that Jesus, risen from the dead, was Messiah and Lord. Believers were taught to make this their act of Christian faith: "...if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved" (Rom 10:9). They ascribed to Christ the title Lord (Kyrios in Greek) which was used in the Septuagint, the Greek Old Testament, as the equivalent of God's un-pronounceable name. To call Jesus Lord meant that you were calling Him God: precisely the confession of Thomas.

For a believer to claim that Jesus was Lord also meant that he or she was committed to Jesus' way of life. The usual way of doing things in society was now subject to a new criterion for believers: The Gospel of Christ. This was perceived as unpatriotic by many Romans, to use a contemporary term. Christians didn't give undivided allegiance to Rome – they had another Lord and another way of life. (*AprilLeaflets*2019)

"Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day." (1 Corinthians 15:3-5)

May the risen Christ our Lord fill your hearts with his divine grace, and grant you a life full of love, faith and hope.
Christ is Risen, He is truly Risen
